

Rule 43
IGNITION INTERLOCK DEVICES-MANUFACTURER
NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

(A) Ignition Interlock Devices (IID) manufacturers have the responsibility to monitor each device and report alleged violations to the court as soon as practicable, but no later than 30 days after the alleged violation. When notifying the court of an alleged violation, the IID manufacturer is required to include the following information:

- (1) Defendant's name,
- (2) Case number,
- (3) Date of the alleged violation,
- (4) Description of the alleged violation, and
- (5) Any other information helpful to the court for determining whether a violation occurred.

(B) The manufacturer shall electronically file the above information with the clerk's office with the clerk's recognized e-filing system so notice of the alleged violation can be sent to the defendant as required by law.
